

LI YANG

MANDARIN TEACHER

Born in Beijing, China. Li has lived and studied in Malaysia and Switzerland, where she also learned English and French. These experiences helped her develop a gentle appreciation for different cultures and the joy of connecting with people from around the world.

She is certified in Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language and is now based in California, USA. Li teaches with a warm, patient, and child-friendly approach, creating a classroom where young learners feel safe, curious, and excited to explore Chinese.

She hopes every child can enjoy discovering new sounds, new words, and new cultures—one small step at a time.
