

AMIRA FAJARDO

SPANISH TEACHER

Amira is a warm and caring Spanish teacher from Mexico and a native Spanish speaker who loves helping young children discover the joy of language.

As both an educator and a mother, she understands how important it is for little ones to feel safe, loved, and confident while they learn.

She earned her Master's Degree in Education in Mexico and later founded and directed a bilingual preschool there. Her background in early childhood education and her leadership in the community reflect her deep commitment to children and families.

She is an ideal teacher for young beginners, bilingual families, and parents seeking a patient and trustworthy educator.

Amira looks forward to welcoming your child and sharing the joy of learning Spanish together.
